Everybody seems to be in such a hurry these days! I wonder why?

Sing a song of people
Walking fast or slow;
People in the city,
Up and down they go.

People on the sidewalk,
People on the bus;
People passing, passing,
In back and front of us.

People on the subway
Underneath the ground;
People riding taxis
Round and round and round.

People with their hats on,
Going in the doors;
People with umbrellas
When it rains and pours.
Everybody seems to be in such a hurry these days!
I wonder why?

People in tall buildings
And in stores below;
Riding elevators
Up and down they go.

People walking singly,
People in a crowd;
People saying nothing,
People talking loud.

People laughing, smiling,
Grumpy people too;
People who just hurry
And never look at you!

Sing a song of people
Who like to come and go;
Sing of city people
You see but never know!

Let's Listen

Read and listen to these two poems with your partner and find out what are the things that the village child and the city child like.

The Village Child
My home is a house
Near a wood
I'd live in a street
If I could!
I do wish someone Lived near.
There's no one to play with
At all.
The trees are so high
And so tall:
And I should be lonely
For hours,
Were it not for the birds
And the flowers.

The City Child
I live in a city
In a street;
It is crowded with traffic
And feet;
There are buses and motors
And trams.
I wish there were meadows
And lambs.
The houses all wait
In a row
There is smoke everywhere
That I go.
I don't like the noises
I hear
I wish there were woods
Very near.

Do you like to float paper boats?
Listen to the poem given below.

Day by Day I Float My Paper Boats

Day by day I float my paper boats
one by one down the running stream.
In big black letters I write my name on them and the name of the village where I live.
I hope that someone in some strange land will find them and know who I am.
I load my little boats with shiuli flowers from our garden,
And hope that these blooms of the dawn will be carried safely
to land in the night.

A Little Bit of Nonsense

There was an old Man with a beard
Who said, “It is just as I feared!
Two Owls and a Hen,
Four Larks and a Wren,
Have all built their nests in my beard!

UNIT 9

Poem: Sing a Song of People

THEMES
Travel
Regard for others
Adventure
Imagination
Familiarity with reading maps

READING TIME
The children could be asked to read books based on travel in India and abroad. They can be encouraged to read stories like Treasure Island, Sinbad the Sailor and share interesting facts about them in class.

CONVERSATION TIME
Why do people travel — to see a new place, for business etc. — the teacher should conduct a brainstorming session of ideas.

The teacher could discuss the various means of transport, both ancient and modern, and how travel is getting more and more luxurious nowadays.

What are the important things to keep in mind while travelling, what are the risks and hazards involved, how to read maps, signs, landmarks etc., are some of the topics that should be discussed.

WRITING TIME
Students could frame some questions of their own to interview the teacher by using the given questions as a guideline.

The paragraph on the children’s favourite means of transport could also include their personal experience of travelling by it.

PROJECT WORK
The children could find out in detail about any one of the Seven Wonders of the World. The picture and the related paragraph could be displayed in the class.
